

THIRD SUNDAY OF LENT

MARCH 4, 2018

LIVING GOD'S WORD

As much as we may want the temples of our lives cleared, we also like much of what takes up our lives. Still, God does come and does clear our temples in unsuspecting ways. Children grow up; friendships melt into memories. What is God asking us to clear away today?

NOTE FROM THE PASTOR: All of us wish we could be holy, if only Jesus would come and do to the temple of our faith what he did to the temple of Israel's faith: cast out what doesn't belong. We try to pray and find ourselves daydreaming. We try to simplify, but we also like our lives the way they are. We wish we would love better, care better, have more compassion or patience, be more generous, but original sin always gets in the way-only we don't call it original sin. We say we don't have willpower or the energy. So what are we to do? John's Gospel promises that God will come and drive such stuff from our lives. In fact, the promise is that God will do it whether we wish God to or not, which is probably a good move on God's part simply because most of us are a bit fearful of what God may clear away.

WHO ARE THE DREAMERS? Every stranger who knocks at our door is an opportunity for an encounter with Jesus Christ, who identifies with the welcomed and rejected strangers of every age (Matthew 25:35-43). Dreamers exemplify the extraordinary contributions that immigrants can provide to our nation. These young people are contributors to our economy, veterans of our military, academic standouts in our universities, and leaders in our parishes. You will find ways on how to engage with your elected officials to voice your support for these young people and a list of actions you can become involved in at www.usccb.org/issues-and-action/human-life-and-dignity/migrants-refugees-and-travelers/backgrounder-on-daca.cfm. Pray we keep open hearts and open minds.

WORDS AND DEEDS: The psalm sings out, "Lord, you have the words of everlasting life." The reading from Exodus gives the ten words (commandments) on relationship with God, holiness of Sabbath (Sunday for us), and right behavior for earthly life. This all leads us to everlasting life. How will I be faithful? How will I keep Sunday? What right behavior, what mercy work will I do this week?
