Our condolences to the family and friends of our Brother Knight Roger Welge who recently passed away. Please keep all of our Brother Knights in your thoughts and prayers.

Congratulations to the 2018 Chester Knights of Columbus Council 3790 scholarship recipients. Elizabeth Eubanks and Mitchell Colonel each were awarded $500 this past May for their achievements. We wish them the best of success in their future college endeavors.

Saturday, September 22nd, at the K.C., there will be the 8th Annual BBQ benefiting the Down Syndrome Association of Greater St. Louis. Serving time is from 4-8 p.m. Adults = $10, children 10 and under = $5. Choose from pork steaks, brats, pulled pork, 3 different sides and ribs are available on a limited quantity.

Labor Day the K.C. will be open at noon as the Cardinals and Nationals play baseball. Come down to the K.C. and watch the game with friends and family.

During the Popeye Picnic, the K.C. will have a fish stand open on Friday and Saturday, Sept. 7th & 8th. Friday serving time is 4 -10 p.m. Saturday serving time is from noon til ??? On Sunday, Sept. 9th, the CHS Dance team will have a chicken fry open to the public from 11 – 2 p.m. Fried chicken, mashed potatoes & gravy, corn and slaw.

The Chester K.C. Council 3790 has a new insurance representative with Michael Kuehnle. He can be reached at 618-774-2819 for your K.C. insurance needs for planning retirement, annuities, life insurance and long term care.

Mike Liefer and Danny Miller will be calling for volunteers to donate an hour of their time to collect for the annual M.R. Tootsie Roll Drive on September 21st & 22nd. The proceeds of this fundraiser will stay locally to help support the Randolph County Human Service Center and also Special Olympics. Last year we raised over $2,300 for this event.
